114 YEARS OLD.

Subscription price, 12c a week; 50c a

Telephone Calle: listin Businers Office, 450. Hetin Editorial Rooms, 35-3, Hetin Job Office, 35-6, Willimantle Office, Room 2 Murray

Building. Telephone 210. Norwich, Wednesday, Nov. 30, 1910.

The Circulation of The Bulletin.

cuintion of any paper in Enstern Connecticut, and from three to four times larger than that of any is It is delivered to over 3,000 of the 4,053 houses in Norwich, and read by ninety-three pe cent, of the people. In Windham it is delivered to over 900 houses in Putnam and Danielson to ove 1,100, and to all of these places it is considered the local daily.

Eastern Connecticut has fortynine towns, one hundred and sixty five posterffice districts, and fortyone rural free delivery routes. The Bulletin is sold in every town and on all of the R. F. D. routes in Eastern Counceticut.

CIRCULATION

VERMONT GRANITE'S PART. According to the Barre Times, the in supporting the Vermont Central ratiroad. The Times says:

The part which the granite industry plays in the development of the rallcarried on the Central Vermont dur ing the past year. But three other single proffucts surpassed it, those being grain, cont and lumber. The secand of those is not a Vermont prod- paign? uct, while the total grain and lumber most: hence they are not distinctly. Vermone products, whereas the granthat the granite industry of the state expected to resume their habit of sup-did not increase during last year, as porting the republican party. the ensual impactor might be led believe from the figures. It is probabl that the granite industry made its usual gains during the mouths which comparison can be made; but in four mouths of the period it is not mfble to make comparisons, because of the complete suspension of the industry in Washington county, owing to the labor disputes.

A JUSTIFIABLE SUIT.

Kentucky has a queer breach of promise case against a dead man, but At Louisville, Ky., Miss Louise Oster man, a pretty young society girl, de-mands $1,000 from an estate on the ding was to have taken place October by criticised. 26, and Spies committed suicide b shooting himself three days before the wedding. The invitations were out, it look small. The honeymoon trip had been planned to the slightest detail. In her per tion Miss Osterman states that she she has suffered great mental an-guish as the result of her finner's

"On the 22d day of October," says the petition, "sald L. O. Spies comthrough the bedy, and said act of suicide was done by the said in o Spies solely and purposely to avoid earrying out the contract of marriago between them, all of which was brought about by no fault on the part of the pinintiff. Plaintiff states thas since said suicide and the breaking of said contract she has suffered physical pain and augmen to an extest whereby the plaintiff believes that her nervous system has been seriously impaired and whereby the plaintiff has been damaged to the extene of $1,000.

Considered from any point of view the damages are very moderate. Untimes the amount couldn't be consid- people are going to get it!

Governor Stubbs of Kansas says. that Roosevelt must be beaten three about six times as much money as times for president before he can get the successful candidate did. into Eryan's class. There is no likell-hood that he will ever be eligible.

If the Rutland News hopes to edify the people of the country it should not waste words saying Vermont is not sensutional. No one ever mistrusted such a thing. The Boston Transcript is of the opinion that the clash on the state line between Connecticut game wardens and Massachusetts hunters will probably be settled by diplomacy.

A Chicago authority has decided that there are fifteen hundred persons in that city good enough to go in first This beats New York to a HUNGRY OFFICE SEEKERS.

It is surprising how many hungry ppointment of highway commissionr of this state. The Ansonia Sentithere stand waiting to step into James H. MacDonald's shoes: "Mayor and Senaor-elect Bryan F. Mahan of New London; Francis W. Foley, former director of public works New Haven: Sirest Selectman Fox of Fairfield; Collin McCrae Ingersoll, formerly head of the civil engineering department of the civil engineering department of Yale, and for some time a member of Yale, and for some time a member of the city engineering department of the civil engineering department of New Haven; and more are expected to get into line before Governor Baidhere stand walting to step into James Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, the New Haven road; J. Frederick sens to the Board of Control, which t public cost, that the regered voters may be prepared to of intelligently upon the charter then it is brought before them. What octter way is there than this for the pursuance of such an important cam-

UNNECESSARY FEAR.

And now some of Judge Baldwin's friends are trying to bring him forth ite handled by the Central Vermont is as a compromise candidate for the practically all Vermont stone. Possi- senate, for it is said that neither hly the tonnage of Vermont lumber Bulkeley nor McLean control the sitthe percentage of the former was about twice that of the state. But Elect him, and then we will have a whether first or second granite, it is democratic senator and a democratic beaten with rubber clums by two ascertain, is contributing greatly to the governor. Whereas, if Governor-elect volume of business carried by the Cen- Baldwin should be elected, he would eroplanes, and proposes to more than

It is announced that the parcelspost movement is likely to receive rec ognition during the short session of

Happy thought for today: The peron is doing well who can keep his to be justifiable on its face. own counsel and always know right Candidate Lake did not spend half plea that L. O. Spies committed sul-cide to avoid marrying her. The wed- win, but he is being much more sharpas much in his campaigning as Good-

There is no questioning the fact hat a great prohibition wave is on, Everything had been prepared for but the internal revenue receipts make

The Meriden Journal gives notice had purchased her trousseau, and that jobs should speak up, as the time is

> The German acrobats who have deded to make a tour of the world on tilts have laid out an unusual stant for themselves.

Ball all the year 'round is the Amrican sporting slogan. Now basketoall will hold the boards until baseball other on again. It is predicted that there will be a nce row kicked up in congress this inter by the attempt to abolish some the navy yards The report of the internal revenue epartment shows that Americans are ood smokers and heavy drinkers and heral taxpayers. The Boston Post, democratic, gives notice that the election of November der the circumstances, two or three sth called for tariff revision, and the

It is a fact that the defeated candilates for governor in this state spent

The killing of one thousand deer in assachusetts during the open seaso. hows that wild game is getting nu erous in southern New England.

Some Call It Sport.

Deer hunting in Massachusetts ocks the tender hearted and hardly lifes the true sportsman. A factory fies the true sportsman. A factory out for Indians than we do for motor exclosed two days ago that all hands excles.—Bristol Press.

THE BULLETIN'S DAILY STORY

GREAT STUFF

of the city engineering department of New Haven"; and more are expected to get into line before Governor Baidwin is inaugurated. There is no doubt that from a democratic standpoint the state highway commissionership is regarded as a political pull. The Sensitive is supported to the state highway commissionership is regarded as a political pull. The Sensitive is right when it says:

"After it is all over, Mr. MacDonald will make the still has friends leftlend road building. In fact, it is possible that two years out of office will result in his having a stronger hold on the people and on the job than he has today. This will be prestly sure to be the easa unless his laurels rest more heavily upon pull and politics than upon his product."

The more applicants the merrier, and the less tikelthood that Commissioner MacDonald will have to go.

AGITATING FOR A NEW CHARTER.

The city of Chelsea, Mass., which has made such a remarkable record for enterprise in the few years elapsing since the great fre, is now having a new charter campaign, and it is interesting to note the character of the petition being made by the citizens to the Board of Control, which reads as follows:

The city of Chelsea, Mass., which has made such a remarkable record for enterprise in the few years elapsing since the great fre, is now having a new charter campaign, and it is interesting to note the character of the petition being made by the citizens to the Board of Control, which reads as follows:

The more applicants the merrier, and the less tikelthood that Commissioner MacDonald will have to go.

AGITATING FOR A NEW CHARTER.

The city of Chelsea, Mass., which has made such a remarkable record for enterprise in the few years elapsing since the great proper the control of the petition being made by the citizens to the Board of Control, which reads as follows:

The more applicants the merrier, and the less tikelthood that Commissioner MacDonald will have to go.

AGITATING FOR A NEW CHARTER.

The city of Chelsea, Mass., which has made and the pr

Sometime ago a man was arrested of at East St. Louis, Ill., for robbery, who it was afterwards announced, had con-fessed to the police that he had comfessed to the police that he had comfirsted a murder which had never been solved. He gave details of the killing which were apparently verified by a statement given by his wife. The man was known as the "candy burglar," from the fact that drug stores were his nerticular object of attention, and he particular object of attention, and he to will be set up again as a principle of college athletic life. Anything and evencything that smacks of commerciallem should be eliminated from the control of college sports.—New Haven

The pessual content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual
content. The pessual content of the content there seemed to be no room to question it. Now, he asserts his innocence of the murder to which he is said to have confessed, and declares that he was compelled by the police of East Str Louis to make his acknowledgment of

Economy in the Rate Question. stern shippers in the rate controversy, has done so many surprising—and excellent—things, and has so fine a reputation for "making good," that his ilternative for a general advance in reight rates commands interest and He virtually says to the railroads:

You need more money because wages have been raised and the cost of materials have increased? Very well; here are the ways and means whereby you can save much more than you would gain if your requests were granted; I propose to show you that you can operate more efficiently and scientifically and economize in various disactions. Why not many along the He virtually says to the railroads: directions. Why not move along the line of least resistance?

The Meriden Journal gives notice hat all democrats wanting gold-lace an outsider and "mere" lawyer, stranger things have happened. The railroad presidents and traffic men will doubtess give Mr. Brandels their best atten-ion. They will examine the evidence less give Mr. Brandels their best attention. They will examine the evidence he has gathered with open minds. He is one of the type they have been looking for," a million saved without detriment to efficiency and service is as useful as a million taken from shippers. Mr. Brandels has only to give particulars and practical suggestions; there is no danger of theoretical oppoparticulars and practical suggestions; there is no danger of theoretical opposition to economy and efficiency.

The impartial rublic, like the car-riers, will await the full presentation of Mr. Brandels' evidence and suspend judgment. We shall not have to wait fortunately. - Chicago Record-

Our Puritan Forbears.

The Puritans were called stern and sad. They had reason to be. They could not go to the football game, the moving picture show, the suffragette rally, the aviation field. They could not even answer the telephone, and the children were not permitted the pleas—that when they misbehave it is not use of turning on the electric light—they were very strict with the youngsters. Why, in those early Thanks—giving days, when pleasures were rare and diversions few, those silent old follows repressed parental affection for his ween a few are two parental. fellows repressed parental affection and would not indulge the kids they really loved to the mild extent of letting them listen to'a few selections from the phonograph. Those old fel-lows succeeded mighty well in resisting the temptations to be frivolous and sporty, persistently refusing to take so barmless a thing as a trolley ride to grandmother's on Thanksgiving day. haps, with their different ideas of sport, They were true to their stern code and they mistook for stern war what was just walked and kept a sharpter look-only rough play.—N. Y. Times.

"The undersigned hereby petition be board of control to furnish a hall conditions is a noble and exhilarating sport, one that brings a man near to not a mass meeting to discuss the uestion of a new charter: also to urnish, at the expense of the city, all delight, but on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delicious wilds of nature hunting is little better than butchery. The populous air and his limbs with a weariness that makes sleep sweet and waking a delight, but on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight but on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight but on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight but on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight but on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of hardship patiently endured in the delight. But on any terms but those of the direct opposite of professionalism. In them by college men, and not as many of them are now fed, by smatteur sportsmen working on the side for a dollar. The standard that Bob Cook,

On Reforming Christmas.

Not content with remodeling the Fourth of July, ultra-zealous reformers are now advocating drastic changes in Christmas. Most of their attacks on the winter festival are dicertain is contributing greativ to the volume of husiness carried by the Central Vermont railroad and the industry is described of recognition whenever caraison arises."

There was a decrease of grante showest relief to the year publican in that office.—Waterbury between the first vermont railroad during the fi rected towards the giving of gifts which, they say is productive of jeal-or November 8th might be confidently expected to resume their habit of supporting the republican party.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Grahame-White has ordered six new exceptiones, and proposes to more than couble his 385,000 before he returns to implement and disinterested with the prosect of what he are supported in the same time to the remembered that any clever secondard can concoct a story of maltreatment and coercion that may arouse public sympathy without a shred of justification. For their own protection against the possibility of suspicion, police organizations in all cities should insure the presence of unprejudiced and disinterested with the possibility of the protection against the presence of unprejudiced and disinterested with the presence of the presen essed whenever a person suspected of what he has given. Nor do I hold crime is held under examination.— with the doctrine that it is better to send merely cards or letters on Christsend merely cards or letters on Christ-mas day and give to the poor the mon-ey we should otherwise have spent. I am selfish enough to want some of the Christmas fun myself; and I want my relatives and friends to have some, oo. I always feel that Christmas day is sacred to my dear ones. Reformers may tell us that the furs which a man may tell us that the furs which a man purposes giving to his wife would buy many dinners for the hungry, and many dolls and toys to make glad the hearts of ragged little ones; butwell, I should be sorry for the poor folk, but if it were my wife, she would get the furs. This is not a plea to abolish giving to the poor on this day of days; it is merely a plea for moderation. Let us remember the poor, let us give—bountifully if we can—to help them; but—don't let's overdo by fulling to give sifts to those near to niling to give gifts to those near to Another thing: In giving to the poor—or, for that matter, to the moderately well to do—let us not give only useful articles. Those in whose lives inxuries seldom come will appreciate it all the more if they receive something which they would not have need.

The marvelous discovery, Curc thing which they would not have need.

of course, belated lingerings in waterfront taverns, and still worse than that, they have been fighting among themselves, white against black. Can it be that the saliormen have for once formerites their forgotten their representative capacity pon below, and you will simply be as-that when they misbehave it is not only their own newly acquired repu-tained from the free trial package -that when they misbehave it is not tound only their own newly acquired reputation for dignity and sobriety that alone. few, but even a few are too many. Probably the reports of disorder are exaggerated. That is to be hoped, and it can be believed, for there can have been no sudden change in the men who have been so successful of late years in changing accepted notions of the sailor ashore. Perhaps the French critics expected too much. Perhaps, with their different ideas of sport, was closed two days ago that all lands might go deer shooting, and the sport is carried on largely in this wholesale fashlon, so that the panic-stricken or extures, treated for lifty weeks of the year like barnyard cattle, are escaping as best they may into Connecticut and other bordering states. Every unskillar of man or boy with a weapon at communical is out for slaughfer, and the presumation for a game into personal profit by either predicting the one-come or reporting the struggle, threatens to become a live criticism. It may be said in this commercial age that it is legitimate for these here. He has in him good senatorial senator Hale's Way.

that even suggests that the senator rather enjoys the experience of being succeeded by a man belonging to the other party.—Springfield Republican. A PLEA FOR THE PESSIMIST. There is a story of an ex-Christian Scientist who, when asked why he had relapsed, or backslid, or become unchristian-unscientific confessed to have morning without an umbrella, because ing tired of being "so darned happy all he can borrow one from the pessimist the time." Evidently that man need- if need be, and he usually can. The the time." Evidently that man need of an occasional dash of pessimism to make life interesting after the monotony of persistent, unvarying optimism.
The hopelessly incurable optimist revels, yes, wallows, in cheerufulness; his object in life is the pursuit of hapiness, and, like the infant creeping toward a cake of soap, he won't be happy till he gets it.

Digrammatic comparisons of optimist and pessimist drop often from the lips of would-be wits: "The optimist sees the rose, the pessimist feels it thorns." "Of two evils, the optimist sees the rose, the pessimist feels it the time."

Doubtless the optimist has his place in the world; so, too, have the amiable both." It is as easy to cover the pesstmist with obloquy as if he deserved it is to mankind get so little credit.

New York's Gain.

It is probable that the census will show a population for all the states of about 91,009,000. In that case, as the New York's Gain.

It is probable that the census will show a population for all the states of about 91,009,000. In that case, as
the New York's Gain.

It is probable that the census will show a population of 9,113,279 will assure that
the New York's Gain.

It is probable that the census will show a population for all the states of about 91,009,000. In that case, as
the New York's Gain.

It is probable that the census will
show a population of 9,113,279 will assure that
the New York's Gain.

It is probable that the census will show a population for all the states of about 91,009,000. In that case, as the New York's Gain.

It is probable that the census will
show a population of 9,113,279 will assure that
the New York's Gain.

It is probable that the census will
show a population of 9,113,279 will assure that the lips of about 91,009,000. In that case, as the New York's Gain.

It is probable that the census will
show a population of 9,113,279 will assure that the number of repthe state would have 39 representatives instead of 37, as now; while if the unchanged around 200,000, in order to show a pop

it is to be regretted that his services to mankind get so little credit.

Here's to the pessimist may he live long and (cause the optimist to) prosperitimist sits upon the deck of a crowded steamer, serenely smiling, blissfully content. The pessimist, sitting behind him smells smoke and begins to fidget.

There was a thirst thief. particular object of attention, and he invariably took candy with his other trol of college sports.—New Haven loot. His confession was repeated, and Journal-Courier. it, the optimist exclaims triumphantly:
"Didn't I say all would come out right in the end?" And the exasperating

Curo Grains of Life Free

No Longer Any Excuse To Be Constipa ted, Weak Stomached, Weak Kidneyed, Weak Livered, Brain Fagged, Thin or Haggard.

Health Is Free.

Send Your Name and Address Today For a Free Trial Package and Learn the Grand Truth.

If you are sick or alling it is be-cause the very foundation of your ex-istence is gradually being dried up, the nerve force which radicates through every atom of your being is

Conduct of Bluejackets.

It is grievous to notice that the bluejackets on the warships are not showing in France the fine propriety of mamer and conduct with which, during recent years, they have been credited in most of the world's ports.

They have been getting assaulted and robbed over there, which means, of course, belated lingerings in water-front reverse.

FREE TRIAL PACKAGE COUPON

Fill in your name and address on blank lines below and mall this coupon to L. C. Grains Co., 525 Pulsifer Bldg., Chicago, Ill., and you will receive a free trial pack-

STREET.....

If You are Not at Your Best

don't worry about it—there's no good in worry. Get better! If your stomach is wrong, your liver and bowels inactive—your nerves are sure to be on edge and your blood impure. Be cheerful and hopeful. As they have helped in thousands of cases, will help you and will give your system the natural help it needs. A few doses will make a great difference in your feelings and your looks. They will help you all along the line-to a clear head, free from aches-to bright eyes-to healthy active organs. This sure, quick and tonic family remedy will help Nature to timber. He is a good lawyer, having high reputation in his profession. He is well educated, and of excellent personal character. He has been a leader in his party running twice as its candidate for governor, and has the confidence and regard of the people of Maine without respect to party. I shall be very glad to see him here in my place, and when he comes on, I shall take great pleasure in introducing him to his future associates."

Restore Your Full Vigor

Sold Everywhere. In boxes with full directions, 10c. and 25c.

There is a cordiality in these remarks that even suggests that the senator rather enjoys the experience of being succeeded by a man belonging to the ny the other night. He stole 45 delphia Inquirer.

Looks That Way. With Postmaster General Hitchcock personally leading raids upon bogus get-rich-quick schemes it begins to look as though there were a lot of We should think the trust would be American promoters who will be com-

Biplane Exonerated. Miss Eleanor Sears of Boston had a narrow escape while acting as a passenger on a biplane the other day. Carrying conservation a long way; but Don't blame the biplane. She would no doubt have been risking her life in revenue.—St. Paul Dispatch.

whose head was severed from his body so neatly that he could not be con-vinced of the disconnection till they had given him snuff and made him sneeze must have been an optimist; seemingly he had not the brains not to be. The optimist doesn't know enough to go in when it rains—or at least, he will start out on a cloudy morning without an umbrella, because he can borrow one from the pessinist elled to go to work.-Nashville Ten- a sufficient quantity of water to oper-

That soap is-Lenox.

The ideal soap is one that does its work-without injuring hands or clothes-and at the same time, is sold at a price so low that you can use it freely without feeling that you are wasteful or extravagant.

That soap is-Lenox.

ADMISSION 10c.

Marvelous Labelle Troupe

an Invisible Wire. JOHN RANAHAN That Kid

TRANSFIELD SISTERS Presenting a Dainty Refined Musical Offering

Evenings, Reserved Seats 20c

THE SENSATION OF TWO CONTINENTS!

LORA, THE MYSTERY She will tell you what you are thinking of. The name of your future husband. How much money you have in your pocket. Tell your name and where you live.

NO ADVANCE IN PRICE.

BREED THEATRE

Miss Doris Wood, Soprano

2.30 7.30 8.45

some other way if she had not been

New York's Gain.

The meanest man in New York just ases of champagne and took along the now is he who called a trusting Cenagon and horses also. He is believed tral Park squirrel to him, and then have concealed them about his perkicked it to death. The law falls short son, made a rope of his bedelothes and of being able to do justice to his case, escaped through the subway.—Phila- and so does the stock of adjectives belonging to the English language.- N. Y. Tribune.

ate its refineries.-Houston Post.

Vermont's Proposal. Vermont proposes to put a tax on Price only $1.00. The Company 129 Main Street, Norwich, Conn.

QLALITY

STETSON & YOUNG.

corner Eighth street. Hours 1-3 and

A Fine Assortment MILLINERY

LOUIS H. BRUNELLE

We are confident our Ples, Cake and Bread canuot be excelled. Give us e

Have You Noticed the Increased Travel? it's a sure sign of good veather and fine roads. People like to get out into the open air. We furnish the best method, and if you'll take one of our reams you'll say the same.

JOSEPH BRADFORD, Book Binder.

108 BROADWAY.

Lenox Soap— "Just fits the hand"

KEEN KUTTER Carving Sets

CHAIN PLIERS

74 Franklin Street

THE HOUSEHOLD,

Bulletin Building

The Vanderbilt Race AND THE CAR THAT WENT THROUGH

POPE-HARTFORD

This is the Car you want to drive.

Call for demonstration and particulars at The M. B. Ring Auto Co., 23 Chestnut Street Telephone 553-5.

Answers All Questions Free. FIVE OTHER BIG ACTS AND HIGH CLASS PICTURES. SPECIAL WEDNESDAY NIGHT-Home Amateurs, Connie McDowel in Black Spots on the Sand. MATINEES

CHAS. MCNULTY, Lesses Feature Picture "INDIAN GIRL'S AWAKENING." Performances

CONCERT at the Osgood Memorial

CHARLES D. GEER Tencher of Singing.

NELLIE S. HOWIE, Teacher of Piano. Fletcher Music Method. Room 48 - - - Central Building.

42 Broadway.

Regular hours after Oct. 1st. oct1d

Fire Extinguishers

In the present emergency every better protected against fire if provided with our Chemical Fre Extinguishers. They will act on oil fires or electrical fires better than water.

Rose Bowling Alleys,

LUCAS HALL, 40 Shetucket Street. J. J. C. STONE, Prop.

in work should always be considered, especially when it costs no more than the inferior kind Skilled men are employed by us. Our prices tell the

Dr. L. F. LaPierre

AT LITTLE PRICES. MRS. G. P. STANTON

BAKERY

20 Fairmount Street.

MAHONEY BROS., Falls Avenue.

lank Books Made and Ruled to Order

Telephone 252

THERE is no advertising medium and Eastern Connecticut equal to The Bulletin for business results

age of Curo Grains by return mail,

The full size package, of Curo Grains are only 50 cents. Your drug-gist can obtain Cure Grains for you because they are kept in stock by